PROGRAM NOTES

AND THERE WAS LIGHT uses scripture, song and narration to share the story of Jesus' birth. The use of "light" as a sacred symbol in each reading and anthem invites the use of candles as an extra-musical element in presentations. A gradual illumination of the sanctuary as the cantata unfolds is one strong possibility.

There are eight separate "LIGHTS" presented in the various movements of the work. During the narrations, place candles on the altar or around the front of the sanctuary to illuminate the theme of each movement.

THE LIGHT OF HOPE
THE LIGHT OF PEACE
THE LIGHT OF JOY
THE LIGHT OF LOVE
JESUS, THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD
THE LIGHT OF GLORY
THE LIGHT OF WISDOM
THE LIGHT EVERLASTING

Light one candle for each movement. Then, with the final candle, raise the lights throughout the auditorium to allow for the option of including congregational participation on the carol, "JOY TO THE WORLD." This brings the work to a dazzling festival conclusion. Feel free to adapt the work to your own worship spaces and traditions. It is always an encouragement to see how thoughtful directors adapt my work for their worship ministries.

THE LIGHT OF PEACE

This is the season of light and peace!

From generation to generation, we have longed for our promised Redeemer. When will our prayers be answered? When will the shadows surrender and our sorrows cease?

The sands of time have not covered our dreams for peace and joy. Deep in the hearts of the people, there shines a spark of divine hope. A sacred light, kindled by faith, flickers with expectation that soon the Morning Star will appear and bath the world with golden grace.

We remember the word of the prophets:

The people walking in darkness have seen a great light; on those in the land of deep darkness a light has dawned. (Isaiah 9:2-3 NIV®)

THE LIGHT OF JOY

This is the season of light and joy!

With mystery and majesty, the angel Gabriel declares the miracle that will change the world forever.

Greetings, you who are highly favored! The Lord is with you.

Mary, you will conceive a child and give birth to a Son. He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give Him the throne of His father David, and He will reign forever and His kingdom will never end. (Luke 1:28, 31-33 paraphrased)

With this angelic acclamation, divine joy pours into a sad, weary world and begins a song that will echo through eternity. Jesus is coming soon. Rejoice, give thanks and sing!

THE LIGHT OF LOVE

This is the season of light and love!

As we gather in this place of devotion and worship, we pause to remember the story of Christ's birth.

Mary was pledged to be married to Joseph. Before they came together, she was found to be pregnant from the Holy Spirit. Because Joseph was faithful to the law, and yet did not want to expose her to public disgrace, he had in mind to divorce her quietly.

But after he considered this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because what is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. She will give birth to a Son, and you are to give Him the name of Jesus, because He will save His people from their sins." (Matthew 1:18-21 paraphrased)

JESUS, THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD

This is the season of light! Jesus, the Light of the world, is born!

In those days a decree went out that a census should be taken of the entire Roman world. So Joseph went up from Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem, the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David. He went there to register with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him and was expecting a Child. While they were there, the time came for the Baby to be born, and she gave birth to a Son. She wrapped Him in swaddling clothes and placed Him in a manger, because there was no guest room for them. (Luke 2:1-7 paraphrased)

It was there, in a candlelit stable, that Mary held her star-Child. Looking down upon His bright countenance, she treasured each fragile moment and, finding her voice, she sang her first lullaby.

THE LIGHT OF GLORY

This is the season of light and glory!

In the fields outside of Bethlehem, there were shepherds who were watching over their flocks of sheep in the cool of the evening. Without warning, an angel clothed in the glory of heaven appeared to them.

Alarmed at such a greeting, the angel said, "Do not be afraid, for I bring you glad tidings of great joy which will be for all people. Today, in the town of David, a Savior has been born to you, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; you will find the Babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger."

Suddenly, a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel saying, "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace and goodwill to all people." (Luke 2:10-14 paraphrased)

THE LIGHT OF WISDOM

This is the season of light and wisdom!

The birth of the Messiah had long been prayed for by the people of faith. Great prophets declared the promises of God and wrote down their revelations.

Abraham, the ancient patriarch, was first to believe in the promises of the Lord's covenant and it was credited to him as righteousness. The Lord took Abraham outside and showed him the night sky. "Count the stars, Abraham. Number them, if you are able. Your legacy will be that dazzling."
(Genesis 15:5 paraphrased)

With the birth of Jesus, God was establishing a new covenant with the world. This everlasting covenant of light and grace would be for all people. As a sacred sign, He set a great star in the sky to symbolize the Light that was coming into the world.

In the east, scholars of great distinction saw this astounding nova and were enthralled. These wise men began to research the prophetic literature, searching for the star's significance. Inspired by what they discovered, they began to follow this brilliant new light and eventually came to Jerusalem. "Where is He who has been born King of the Jews? We have seen His star in the east and have come to worship Him." (Matthew 2:2 paraphrased)

THE LIGHT EVERLASTING

From the book of Genesis: In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. Now the earth was dark and empty. Darkness was over the face of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering above the waters.

And God said, "Let there be light," and there was light! (Genesis 1:3 paraphrased)

From the Gospel of John: In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning. Through Him all things were made. Without Him, nothing was made that has been made. In Him was life and that life was the light of the world. The light shines in the darkness and the darkness has not overcome it! (John 1:1-5 paraphrased)
